WEEKLY NOTES

Good Afternoon,
Welcome to Holy Week,

As we enter into Holy Week, we are reminded of just how far God is willing to go for us. We see Jesus freely enter Jerusalem, wash the Apostles' feet, be betrayed and condemned, carry the cross, die a painful death, and rise from the dead, all for us.

"No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends." - Jn 15:13

The school community started Holy Week spending time in Adoration. Fr. Bob led everyone in a beautiful reflection. We all spent some precious time in the presence of Jesus. Please take some time to pray as a family and to talk about the love of Christ. Can any of us even imagine laying down our lives for the salvation of others? Are we truly worthy of his love? Let's pray as a community that through prayer we can become worthy to enter the house of God.

*I wish you and your families a beautiful prayerful Easter!
Have a great week.*

God Bless!
Peace,
Mrs. Gagnon

Fr. Bob's Weekly Reflection

This is the week we call "Holy" because it is a memorial of God's saving deeds for us in Jesus. There is a solemn nature to this week. We might be tempted to be sad or conflicted this week. It is not easy to get close to the reality that we are sinners and our Lord and Savior went through this betrayal, suffering and death for us. So, sometimes, we avoid looking at this week closely, and praying with it, because we fear getting into our guilt.

The invitation this week is to come closer to the reality of God's profound love for us. Yes, we are all sinners. But, we are loved sinners. We are being invited to be grateful, not to beat our breasts. We are invited, in this spirit, to feel all that we can feel this week. Yes, we will feel some discomfort - after all, we feel discomfort when anyone puts themselves through some sacrifice for us. And, the sacrifice here is the gift of his very self - so that we might always know how completely Jesus entered into the reality of our human existence - "even death, death on a cross." [Phil. 2:6-9]

This week we follow our ongoing pattern of connecting with our Lord, as early as we can each morning. For even a few moments we name our desire: "Lord, let me be with you this week and open my heart to feel what you want me to feel about your love for me, personally." Then, throughout the day, in many backgrounds, in-between moments, we can continue our brief conversations with our Lord as we relate this desire with the people and events of our day. Finally, each night, we can pause, perhaps before a crucifix, or placing ourselves in our imagination before the cross, and speaking to our Lord, friend to friend, the gratitude we feel for the gift of mercy and eternal life his love has gained for us.

Quote of the Week

"The LORD is good to everyone. He shows compassion on all His creation. All of Your works will thank You, LORD, and Your faithful followers will praise You."

Psalm 145:9-10
