WEEKLY NOTES

Good Afternoon,

Thank you to all of the families who have returned their enrollment forms or who have reached out to me regarding next year. There are still a few families I have not heard from. I have started to call families on our waiting list for tours. If you have not returned the form I cannot promise your place for next year.

Next week is Catholic Schools Week. You have the list of activities in today's notes. We kick off the week on Sunday with our choir singing at 10:30 Mass. Please consider joining us. Parents who are CORI'ed can reach out to classroom teachers to see about volunteering at bowling on Thursday, February 1st.

We are holding another Paint Night this year. The information is included in today's notes. This was a huge success last year. I hope to see you again this year.

Reminder: we are still in need of copy paper donations. Thank you!

Have a great week.

Peace,
Mrs. Gagnon

NOTES

Fr. Bob's Weekly Reflection

This is a week where Jesus speaks of seeds being planted and of growing. We are still at the beginning of a new year, and this is a good time to answer the call in our hearts to spend more time with Jesus, in prayer.

"I'm not very good at prayer," we might say. "I don't have the time to pray." Jesus is not waiting for us to be perfect before we talk to him - he is simply waiting, right now, for us to come to him in our own humanity. This week we are invited to uncover the light of our faith, the light that warms the longing we feel in our souls for something different or deeper in our relationship with God. At this beginning of the year, we might step back and examine the ways we talk with Jesus - and the ways we hold him at arm's length.

We are being called into a relationship, a friendship, with someone who delights in us and waits for us to release our fears and come out of hiding. Where do we start? With the desire.

It can be so simple to take the empty moments of our day and just tell the same Jesus who healed and loved on earth, what is in our hearts. In the early morning moments before we get out of bed, while in the shower or traveling to work, cooking or walking the dog - we can stop and open our hearts.

"Jesus, you know what is in my heart. You know what my needs are. Help me to be more open to the way you are calling me in my life."

Our prayer can be as simple as opening our hands on our lap for a moment and saying in our own words, "Show me how to come out of hiding. Give me the courage to let go of my fears and bring myself to you in honesty. Let me drop the many defenses I carry that keep me from feeling how deeply you love and accept me."

There is no right or wrong way to approach Jesus - the only right thing is that we come with an open heart and our own desire for something deeper.

Every evening as we end our day, we can sit at the edge of our bed with our hands open and say, "Thank you." We can reflect on the many ways we felt the love of God in our lives that day. What tiny seed was planted in my life to bloom? Where did I shine the light of my own faith on someone?

wonders, LORD,
Your faithfulness too, in the assembly of the holy ones "
